Fun in the House During the Hawaiian Upon Account of Having Used Unparliamentary Language-Mr. Johnson Pictures Scenes from the Comic Opera of "Liliuokalani"-The Federal Election Laws Debate.

Washington, Feb. 5. HE house bill to repeal the federal election laws was debated in the senate during most of the session Mr Chandler (Rep. N. H.) leading off with a speech against the bill, and Mr. Frye (Rep., Me.) illustrated the necessity for such laws by what he called the "twice-tol I tale" of the Tammany election frands in the presidential election of 1868the wholesale naturalization of foreigners, the "remeating" and the wholesale false registering. He asked Mr. Falmer Dem., Ill.) whom he had sought our for his special antagonist, whether such a system of dishonest practices do not justify the existence of the federal statutes which the bill proposed to repeal, but the Illinois sen ator refused to make such an admis-The discussion was participated in by several members, and then the bill went over till tomorrow. The anti-option question was brought up by resolution to refer to the judiciary committee the bill introduced some weeks ago by Mr. George (Dem., Miss. After some remarks by Mr. Berry (Dem., Ark.,) and Mr. Washburu (Rap., Minn .) no action was taken on the m :tion, Mr. George not being in the chamber. The senate at 415 adjourned.

HAWAH IN THE HOUSE.

The Hawaiian debate was resumed in the house today by Mr. Morse, of Massachusetts, who had five minutes Before he had proceeded for a minute, however, Mr. Outhwaite called him to order for unparliamentary language. "To what language do you refer!" asked Mr. Morse. "To the insulting, impulent and unparliamentary lan-guage just used," answered Mr. Outh-

The president, he said, was ably seconded by his secretary of state, who had no cause to stand up for Mr. Harrison, who had defeated him for the Republican nomination at Calcago in 1888, and who hal made it impossible for him (Gresham) in all time to come to secure a Republican nomination. Tost, he said, was before Mr. Gresham descended to his own level in the Democratic party.

THE LOTTERY MUDDLE.

Postmaster General is Determined to Stamp Out the Evil. Washington, Feb. 5 — Up to this afternoon Postmaster General Bissell has received no official information of the proposed or actual resurrection of the Louisana lottery and the establishment of its headquarters at Port Tampa City, Fla. General Bissell is thoroughly alive to the secessity for prompt and vigorous action in the premises and in case the fact is established that the lottery company has again opened for business he will exercise every power in his control to stamp it out with a view to a thorough extermination of the evil.

He has asked the state department to take up the matter with the govern-ments of all the Mexican and South American states, and if possible secure action by which the scheme of making drawing in one country in order to evade the laws of another may be pre

Williams further said that if the foreign anarchists reinforce the unem-ployed there would be warm work for the police. The speaker was repeat edly cheered.

A BIG FIRM SQUEEZED.

Financial Trouble.

Well Known River Coal Operators in

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 5.—An execu-tion for $150 000 was issued this morning by S. S. Smith, trustee for the nion National bank, against Horner Debate-Mr. Morse Called to Order & Roberts, the well known river coal operators. The amount is to cover a debt of $76,000 ins the plaintiff. On Saturday a judgment for $68,000 covering a debt of $33,000 was entered by Stella D. Hays against Simpson Horner individually. It is not yet known whether there are any other judgment creditors of the firm. There are, however, several suits pending for different amounts. No statement of the finan cial condition of the firm has been givan out. The assets consists of coal lands, beats and barges. It is not yet determined whether an assignment will be made, The partnership between Horner and Roberts has been in existence thirty years and has been rated among the leading river coal firms.

BIG WHEAT DEAL IS ON.

Giant Operators Are Said to Be Under the Market. CHICAGO, Feb. 5 -- On the board of trade it is whispered that Philip D Armour, Marsuall Field, John W Doane, George M Pullman and other magnates in the local financial and commercial field, together with Addison Cammack and his crowd in New York, are "under the wheat market" to the extent of natold millions of bushels, and they have laid the foundation for a gigantic deal in breadstuffs. Two years ago it was Rockefeller, Mackey, Blair, of New Jersey, and Ar-

Last year it was Armour, Rockefeller and Jack Cutahy. It is reported that from 60,000,000 to 75,000,000 bushels have been hedged and sold short for May delivery.

Against this vast volume of sales

there are 24,000,000 bushels of cash wheat in Chicago elevators, and 10,-000,000 bushels additional in the ware houses of Duluth, Milwaukee and St. Lonia. Minneapolis is out of the case entirely, as the wheat at that point could not be got away from the millers. Settlement on terms satisfactory to the "longs" would have to be made on anywhere from 30,000,000 to 50,000,000 bushels.

THEY DESIRE TO LYNCH HIM.

An Angry Mob Clamors for a Prisoner in Lebanon Jail. LEBANON, Int., Fab. 5 .- The prospects for a lynching bee here tonight re very bright. Saturday night Frank Hall, a negro, assaulted Mrs. Akers, a widaw, who lives alone with her children on a farm four miles east of Lebanon, holding a revolver at her head while he accomplished his purpose. He then fled but was subsequently arrested at his home and brought here. The news that a mob was organizing adaged the sheriff to hustle the prisoner away to Indianapolis. Tals mornng Hall was returned for a hearing. A mob at once surrounded the jull and an attack is expected at any time. About 11 o'clock the county prose-mounted the jail steps and pleaded with the mob to disperse. He old them that Hall would be vigoronsly prosecuted and said that the wife was dangerously ill and hat the noise might prove fatal to her, to attention was paid to his words At noon the mob was trying to get a leader and demand the prisoner.
